Charlotte's Association of Corporate Counsel to Host Annual Fundraising Event to Benefit Local Organizations

CHARLOTTE, N.C., July 22, 2014 — The Association of Corporate Counsel Charlotte Chapter ("ACC Charlotte") will host its 4th Annual Casino Night Fundraiser on Friday, August 22, 2014.

Local non-profits selected to benefit from this year's event are Justice Initiatives and The Relatives. Justice Initiatives is an organization whose mission is to educate the community about the court system and to advocate, support and advance its needs and interests (<http://www.justiceinitiatives.org/>). The Relatives is an organization that helps children and youth find shelter and support (<http://www.therelatives.org/pxtherelatives/the-relatives-homepage>).

"This is our chapter's premier annual fundraising event where we choose very deserving non-profit organizations in our community to receive some much needed additional financial support," says Jane Nohr, executive director, ACC Charlotte. "This event provides in-house legal counsel with the opportunity to give back to our community while having an enjoyable evening and networking with in-house counsel colleagues."

Casino Night will be held at The Palmer Building on August 22nd from 7:30 – 10:30 p.m. Attendees will be given "funny money" to enjoy playing a variety of casino games and will have the chance to win door prizes.

The event is only open to in-house corporate counsel in the Charlotte area, ACC members and their spouses or guests. The cost to attend is $25.00 per person and includes food and beverages.

Casino Night 2014 is sponsored by Envision Discovery, Thomson Reuters, KPMG Forensic and Special Counsel. To register contact Jane Nohr, at charlotteacc@gmail.com by Friday, August 15, 2014.

About ACC Charlotte:

The Association of Corporate Counsel (ACC) is a global bar association that promotes the common professional and business interests of in-house counsel who work for corporations.
