

Montagnard Presenter Biography

Rachelle Vo is a Prevention Specialist at Anuvia Prevention and Recovery Center. Her primary role is to provide evidence based curriculums to the community. She provides passionate services towards substance abuse education and life skills to youth and adults.

She has completed an assessment of the Montagnard Community here in Mecklenburg County. The community has shown great strength on family support, and has taken significant role in our community. The presentation will provide insight on the services that the Montagnard community can benefit from as well as a cultural insight on understanding the needs of population. Building and maintaining positive relationships with schools, health administrators, volunteers, law enforcement, and key stake holders is key to best serve the needs of the Montagnard community.

Rachelle is a member of the Asian Chamber of Commerce. She is also the Advisor for Students Preventing and Informing on Drugs and Alcohol

